About Us

Empowerment in Every Weave: Discover the perfect blend of style and substance with our jute bags, meticulously crafted by 90 Self-Help Group (SHG) women Tenkasi District who have undergone a transformative manufacturing training program (LEDP). Supported by AOS Mission and financially backed by NABARD, this initiative ensures not only the highest quality but also serves as a powerful means of empowerment for these skilled artisans. The manufacturing process, overseen by NABARD, guarantees top-tier products that resonate with craftsmanship and durability, thanks to the expertise imparted by subject professionals.

Your choice to purchase our jute bags transcends mere fashion; it's a conscious decision to support the lives of these empowered women. With every sale, you contribute to the betterment of their livelihoods, paving the way for financial stability and improved well-being. Additionally, by opting for our eco-friendly jute bags, you play a role in the larger movement to eliminate plastics and embrace a sustainable, green future. Join us in making a statement – one that blends style, empowerment, and environmental consciousness in Tenkasi District.

Artwork Guidelines

- ▶ Try to avoid photographic or four colour process prints on jute
- ▶ Avoid printing gradients or drop shadows
- ▶ Minimise white or pale colours on jute
- ▶ Try to avoid reverse text wherever possible
- ▶ We recommend a minimum font size of 22px for text on jute
